

Doctrine and Practice beyond Borders:
International Interactions in East Asian Buddhism

Friday, September 16, 2022

Co-Organizers:

Mayuko Kawakami

(Asian History, Ōsaka University; 2022 Numata Visiting Scholar, Princeton University)

Bryan Lowe

(Religion, Princeton University)

Schedule

Friday September 16 (all Jones 202 unless noted otherwise)

8:15 AM Continental Breakfast

9:00 AM: Welcoming Remarks (Bryan Lowe and Mayuko Kawakami)

9:15 AM: Keynote Address (Michael Como)

10:15 AM: Coffee Break

10:30 AM: Panel 1: Genshin's Jitashū Tōketsu Gimon 源信「自他宗唐決疑問」

Ōtani Yuka 大谷由香

The Significance of Research on Tōketsu and a Report on the Miketsu Research Group's Activities

唐決研究の意義や、「未決研」の活動報告

Kawakami Mayuko 河上麻由子

The Jōwa Mission to Tang as Quoted in the Jitashū Tōketsu gimon

「自他宗唐決疑問」内に引用される承和遣唐使について

Moro Shigeki 師茂樹

The Content of the Questions Submitted by the Jōwa Mission to Tang

承和遣唐使の出した質問内容

Murakami Akiya 村上明也

On Genshin's Twenty-Seven Questions and Answers

源信 27 問答について

Jacqueline Stone: Response

12:45 PM: Lunch

2:00 PM: Panel 2: Precepts between China and Japan

Abigail MacBain: The Vinaya Veneer: Reexamining the Role of Monastic Precepts in Japan's Precepts Master Solicitation

Bryan Lowe

Giving, Precepts, and Poverty in Tōdaiji Fujumon kō

Xingyi Wang

The Production of a Sacred Space: Incense in East Asian Buddhist Monastery

Paul Groner

Ambiguities and Contradictions in the Interpretation of the Precepts in Fourteenth
Century Japan

Lori Meeks: Response

4:15 PM: Coffee Break

4:30 PM: Graduate Student project introductions and closing thoughts (Bryan Lowe and Mayuko Kawakami)

Prospect House (Open to all attendees, registration required)

5:15 PM: Reception

6:00 PM: Dinner